2018 Scholarship Awards

The Scholarship Committee is pleased to announce that we have awarded the AAUW Harrisburg scholarships to four deserving young women. They embody the ideals of AAUW and the spirit, educational, and societal values of the individuals for whom the scholarships are named.

This year's recipient of the Martha M. Dohner Memorial Scholarship is Alyssa Asick, a communications major at Susquehanna University. Volunteering is an important component of Alyssa's life and she is active in Alpha Phi Omega, a service organization that supports needs within the community.

Elizabeth Migatulski is the committee's choice for the Beverly J. Smith Memorial Scholarship. She is a psychology major from Juniata University. On campus, she is active with Special Olympics and new student orientation. Additionally, Elizabeth is a student AAUW member at Juniata and serves as Secretary to the organization.

The Mary Lou McDowell Scholarship is awarded to Hannah Wagner, a Human Development and Family Science major at Messiah College. Her parents are missionaries, and she spent part of her childhood in Kenya. At this year's National Council on Family Relations Conference in San Diego, she will co-present a poster exhibit.

Hailey Molina, a pharmacy major at The University of the Sciences in Philadelphia, was selected as the first recipient of the Ronald D. and Kathleen A. Krausse STEM Scholarship. Hailey is quite active in student government in addition to being a resident advisor and president of the Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society.

All of the scholarship recipients and a guest are invited to join AAUW Harrisburg for our Spring Luncheon on Saturday, May 4, 2019.
