Hilma af Klint -Artist Ahead of Her Time

Sunday, March 24, 2019 - MUST SEE EXHIBIT

The first major solo exhibition of the artist's work in the United States is now on view at the Guggenheim. Hilma af Klint's abstract work predates the work by artists such as Kandinsky, Mondrian, Kupka, and Malevich, artists that we have long considered the pioneers of abstraction. Inspired by her active spiritualist beliefs and actively communicating with and received messages from beings of higher consciousness by entering trance states, an otherworldly "guide" instructed af Klint to design a temple connected by a spiral path, and commissioned her to make paintings for this temple. The 193 works that af Klint created in the subsequent years are collectively known as The Paintings for the Temple.
