“Student Needs Today: Community Report.”

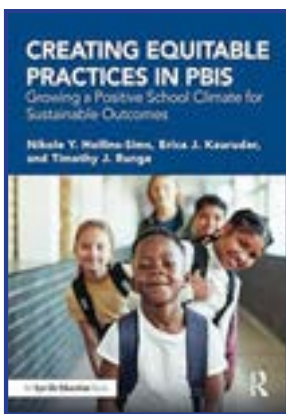

Named Pennsylvania School Psychologist of the Year (2021) and the AAUW Harrisburg’s Gateway to Equity Award honoree (2023). Dr. Hollins-Sims will provide an update on current challenges experienced by

Her colleagues praise her

“Dr. Nikole Hollins-Sims and Hollins-Sims Consultation are monumental to the professional learning and advocacy needed to promote equitable outcomes, particularly at the system level. The expertise and passion for leading sustainable change are inspirational to all educators seeking to create positive results for students in schools.”

Kamonta’ Heidelberg, Ph.D.
Professor

Her book Creating Equitable Practices in PBIS is considered the go-to resource which guides educators on how to incorporate equitable practices in a PBIS framework. Along with co-authors Erica Kaurudar and Timothy Rungeltn they cover core concepts including school-wide positive behavioral interventions and supports (SWPBIS) and multi-tiered system of supports (MTSS), define equity, and present methods for enhancing implementation practices through an equity mindset. it is lauded as ideal for educators, behavioral specialists, and administrators who wish to promote a positive school climate and purposeful educational relationships.

November 2023 Message from Our Co-Presidents Jane Pomerantz and Christine Zuzack

It's so hard to believe that we are already approaching the end of 2023! This has certainly been a busy year for AAUW Harrisburg. Have you been taking advantage of your membership and all it has to offer??

October was an amazing month for our Branch. Our sponsorship of the Harrisburg Book Festival offered a wide array of opportunities for member volunteerism along with an incredible program of authors. Steve Inskip, George Saunders, Lisa Mundy, Teju Cole, Emily Wilson, Viet Thanh Nguyen, and many, many more provided wonderful insights into the writing process, how they develop their stories, and from where they draw inspiration. It was so rewarding to see the public appreciation for these writers.

In the October Non-Fiction Book Group discussion, the two authors of "Death as a Living," Doyle Burke and Louis Grieco, (yes, Lillian Grieco's son) joined us via Zoom to talk about their book. It was such a treat to have the actual authors provide firsthand accounts of their experiences with homicide cases in Dayton, OH. A recording of the session is available.

Barb Warfel offered another amazing Culture Vulture trip, this time to Washington DC to experience the newly reopened National Museum of Women in the Arts followed by the National Gallery of Art. These day trips that Barb puts together are so enjoyable and enlightening. Don't miss out on the next trip on December 9 to Winterthur!

Our Co-Presidents, Christine Zuzack and Jane Pomerantz, are totally immersed in everything we do. Here they take a break at the Oct.29 Culture Vultures tour of the newly reopened NMWA.

Who doesn't enjoy a dynamic speaker? Well, we were treated to one of the most energetic speakers I've ever experienced in Dr. Greg Ferro's presentation on Abraham Lincoln. This was at our October Branch meeting at Fredricksen Library. He had the entire audience enthralled with his unusual tales and little known facts about Lincoln.

These are just a few of the many events last month. We also had gatherings of the Fiction Book Group, Dine-Around group lunch at the Greystone, supporting the NAACP through attendance at their Freedom Fund dinner, Kathy Gates policy action opportunities.

I am so grateful and proud of the members who have worked diligently to create and foster these events and experiences and to those who have attended and participated.

Don't let November opportunities pass you by! Our yearbook, news letters, emails, and Facebook page provide a full schedule of upcoming events. Don't miss out...and don't forget to VOTE on Tuesday, November 7!

Christine Zuzack & Jane Pomerantz

Partnerships Enrich Us All

Wednesday,
November 15, 2023,
in the Main Rotunda
of the PA Capitol
11:00 am

- the significant issue of massage parlor regulation, championed by our partner, the Zonta Club of Harrisburg-Hershey and their partner Greenlight Operations, will be highlighted in a public assembly.

Learn about HB 1241 - An Act providing for the licensure of bodywork facilities; imposing powers and duties on the Department of State; and prescribing penalties. -

Bill Sponsor:
Joe Webster
District 150, serving
Montgomery County.

Since we all are aware of the recent sting in the West Shore, we learned that the massage parlors are not regulated, so no policing has been done.

Speakers will be: Representative Webster who wrote the bill, Jordan Pine from Greenlight Operation, Suzanne Estrella from the PA Victim Advocate office, and Representative Sheryl Delosier.

Zonta has invited 25 like-minded organizations to display their literature from 10-11 in the Rotunda that day prior to the Assembly. Please join us.

The Zonta Club of Harrisburg-Hershey and Greenlight Operation cordially invite you to join us on Wednesday, November 15, 2023 at 11 a.m. in the Main Rotunda of the Capitol for the "Zonta says 'No' to Human Trafficking" Assembly With Emphasis on Regulation of Massage Parlors in PA focused on HB 1241: An Act providing for the licensure of bodywork facilities; imposing powers and duties on the Department of State; and prescribing penalties.

Wednesday, November 8, 2023, PA School Funding Lawsuit - What's Happening and Why it Matters
7:00 - 8:00 pm - Zoom Webinar - sponsored by AAUW Doylestown

Speakers

Prof. Edward Fuller, Professor of Education – Ed Fuller is a professor in the Department of Education Policy Studies in the College of Education at Penn State University. He will speak about how the funding system results in inequitable access to teachers, nurses, counselors, social workers, and other vital human services in schools.

Sandra Miller - Public Policy Chair, AAUW-PA, Sandra Miller will explain:

- 1) how the current school funding formula works and results in systemic inequity;
- 2) the task of the Basic Education Funding Commission (BEFC), the bipartisan group of legislators charged with proposing a remedy to the inequitable funding;
- 3) the goals of PA Schools Work and their four expectations of the BEFC.

This year, we're thrilled to honor Black feminist pioneer, activist, author, publisher, and AAUW American Fellowship alumna Barbara Smith. Barbara Smith played a groundbreaking role in defining an African American literary tradition, building Black women's studies and feminist scholarship in the U.S., and opening up a national, cultural, and political dialogue about the intersections of race, class, sexuality, and gender. Among her many outstanding accomplishments, Barbara Smith co-founded Kitchen Table: Women of Color Press, the first U.S. publisher of books for women of color to amplify voices that had long been marginalized.

The Judicial Races: This year, we have important state-wide judicial offices up for election and retention. These judges have ruled on important priorities of AAUW PA in the past few years from school funding and elections. We could be facing more of these battles in the coming months so it is essential that we all pay attention to these races.

Please research the topic, starting with the following article:

The Mechanicsburg Museum Association, through Cindy Dlugolecki's passion for historical research and detail, was able to put on a very unique walking tour of a local cemetery which dates back to 1862.

"Thanks to Cindy Dlugolecki for preparing today's wonderful event for the museum, "Talking Tombstones". The research and then stories shared were both informative and entertaining.

Thank you Cindy for all the time and energy spent on these scripts. The actors and actresses who portrayed early Mechanicsburg residents were amazing. Thank you to each one of them. These folks truly brought these "talking tombstones" to life".

The event was held at Chestnut Hill Cemetery - located at 319 W Winding Hill Road in Mechanicsburg - on October 21, 2023.

Ann Lowe Fashion Designer. Although Lowe had been designing couture-quality gowns for America’s most prominent debutantes, heiresses, actresses, and society brides—including Jacqueline Kennedy, Olivia de Havilland, and Marjorie Merriweather Post—for decades, she remained virtually unknown to the wider public. Since then, too little recognition has been given to her influence on American fashion.

Ann Lowe’s recently emerging visibility as a designer stands in contrast to much of her career and the countless unrecognized Black dressmakers and designers who have contributed to American fashion for generations, including her own grandmother and mother. She blazed a path for others to follow and her legacy is still felt in fashion culture.

This is the largest exhibition of Ann Lowe’s work to date, featuring 40 iconic gowns, many that have never been on public display, and it will illuminate her evolution as a designer from the 1920s to the 1960s. The exhibition will also feature the work of contemporary couturiers and fashion designers

Harrisburg, PA

AAUW HARRISBURG DIVERSITY STATEMENT

AAUW Harrisburg condemns racism. We are committed to building a more just society where everyone, no matter the color of their skin, can live without fear, pursue their life goals, and thrive. Systemic racism is firmly rooted in the U.S., and today's injustices mirror our shameful history — from police brutality to inequality in educational opportunities to the disproportionate impact of COVID-19 on communities of color. Our country needs healing. That healing will only come with justice.

AAUW Harrisburg is committed to fighting for justice and long-term and lasting change and will collaborate with government officials, educators, and community organizations to address systemic racism and inequality in our community. To make a change, we must ACT, identifying ways in which each of us can optimize our recognition, acceptance and inclusion of all diverse groups and our roll in achieving equality in all its aspects in our community and our country, from patronizing minority owned businesses to contacting our government leaders. AAUW Harrisburg's Co-Presidents Christine Zuzack and Jane Pomerantz; Diversity, Equity, Inclusion & Belonging Chair Kathy Silks; and Membership Co-Vice Presidents MaryAnn Daniels and Kathy Seidl are leading this important effort.

OUR MISSION

To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy.

OUR VALUES

Nonpartisan. Fact-based.
Principled. Inclusive and Intersectional with Equity for All.
