Life in the Pennsylvania Capitol (or - Behind the Scenes in PA Government) From My Perspective - Kathy Seidl

Kathy Seidl, our current Co-President with MaryAnn Daniels, modestly gives her history as "I relocated from Detroit, Michigan in 1986, to the Reading area. I lived there until 2001, when I moved to Harrisburg for work. I was employed by the Democratic Caucus of the Pennsylvania Legislature, retiring from there in October 2019. I worked for standing committees of the house for the majority of my career, preparing members for committee meetings, developing legislation, and preparing bill analysis on all bills that were reported to committee."

Preparing any politician for anything in hopes of a good outcome is a monumental task in itself! Come to the first of this year's daytime Fireside Chats ready to "pick her brain" about life as a staffer and how she settled in with the House Democratic Caucus. What were the challenges and what were the rewards? Her advice to anyone considering life in the world of state politics?

September, 2019,
retirement!

Since retirement, Kathy has jumped in to local involvement and experiences from Foreign Policy Association to concerts, plays, and PSU Harrisburg's OLLI program.

Being Goofy Grandma

But, she always saves time to travel and explore with her three very active grandsons, most-recently taking a Roads Scholar trip to see Mt. Rushmore. And, in her spare time, she experiences the world through Culture Vultures, guided tours, and sometimes just heading out to see what's there.

Please RSVP to Marcia at in order for seating and serving to be arranged.

Retirement has not slowed Kathy down in any way. She hikes (and bikes) and rallies for our rights!

Winter Thoughts from Our Co-Presidents MaryAnn Daniels & Kathy Seidl

A new year, a new beginning, and new opportunities to make a difference, whether it's a New Year's resolution to improve one's health and fitness, to be more adventurous with travel, or to bravely put yourself out there by volunteering to serve.

With those thoughts in mind, your AAUW co-presidents would like you to sincerely consider serving in a leadership capacity for the 26-27 branch year if called upon by the Nominating Committee. We have found that having a "partner in crime" as your co-_____ is the easiest and most effective way to serve, as it's a good method to share duties, share ideas, and have a sounding board.

If we are to move our branch forward in the coming years, it's imperative that we have an engaged and active membership with women who are willing and ready to serve and to lead. It's truly an excellent opportunity to make new friends and strengthen existing relationships, to flex skills that may have laid dormant for a while, and to courageously try new things. Life's an adventure, so let the adventure begin!

Our Annual Holiday Gathering

December 6, 2025 at Messiah/Lifeways

Our annual holiday get together centered around the holiday mainstay of sharing - in all ways that we can. Members brought delectable sweet and savory holiday treats as is our custom. After a welcome from Kathy Seidl and MaryAnn Daniels, Cindy Dlugolecki took the microphone to volunteers to share their Holiday memories, many of which piqued our own interest in things past. Members were encouraged to bring a photo of a childhood holiday memory and to take us for a walk down memory lane. The warmth of nostalgia permeated our day and we all departed feeling a little warmer inside in these challenging times.

inset: Barb Kriebel, one of the organizers, along with Joan Swetz and Cindy Dlugolecki, makes one last check that all has been covered.

Phyllis Skok and Beth Klein, our YWCA Chair, enjoy the event before they pack up all those presents under the tree to deliver to the Harrisburg YWCA. Thank you, ladies.

Thank You To All For Lifting Our Spirits

Our Health, Our Future, Our Lobby Day

November 18, 2025 Recap

On November 18th, AAUW representatives from around the state joined together with advocates, health-care providers, and other community members to demand a Pennsylvania that puts people's health and futures FIRST. It was a day of advocacy to make sure our elected officials in Harrisburg understand our needs when it comes to our sexual and reproductive health care. We rallied, met with legislators, learned, and took multiple actions on a variety of important policies that we need to make Pennsylvania a healthier place to thrive.

A full day was planned including an AM rally, opportunities to observe both Senate and House sessions; pre-registered meetings with an attendee's senator and/or representative, lunch voucher provided for the Capitol Cafeteria, and guided Capitol tours. When an attendee needed some reset time, there was even a "rage room" provided in the area for comparing notes on the day's insights as well as hands on activities to help decompress.

If you were not able to attend, or wish to contribute added impact, the pictured postcard is available to download <https://www.canva.com/design/DAGBAR7ay6k/kZk1cfbbxim1sIM62J7mCg/edit>

From MaryAnn Daniels meeting with Rep. Justin C. Fleming : Justin Fleming represents the 105th Legislative District in Dauphin County in the PA General Assembly. As MaryAnn says "If you don't think you can make a difference, think again; he literally signed on to two of the bills we were advocating for, as co-sponsor."

During the morning rally in the Capitol Rotunda, participants heard from Rep Mary Jo Daley who serves House District 148 and spoke on a collection of bills that would protect reproductive health-care services in Pennsylvania;

Rep La'Tasha Mayes who represents the 24th District in Allegheny County and is a part of the Black Maternal Health Caucus; and Valerie Arkoosh, Secretary of Health and Human Services, appointed by Governor Josh Shapiro in January, 2023, among several others representing like minded women's groups across the state. Our own MaryAnn Daniels and Kathy Seidl can be seen upper right area behind their signs. .

AAUW Atlantic Regional Conference

September 25 - 27, 2026

3-Day Regional Conference in Lancaster, Pennsylvania

Lancaster, Pennsylvania is a wonderful city and one of America's oldest inland cities to date. It served as Pennsylvania's capital from 1799 to 1812. It is full of history.

For your convenience, the elegant Lancaster Marriott at Penn Square is located on-site, integrated into the convention center facilities. The center is located in the middle of the city, walking distance to many restaurants, coffee shops, the Central Market, wineries, breweries, and shops.

Additionally, Lancaster has a number of fall festivals during this time of year, which offer additional opportunities for exploration outside of the Regional Conference.

The Harrisburg International Airport is 30 miles from the location and there is an Amtrak station in Lancaster.

Thursday, March 26, 2026 - Baltimore Museum of Art - Amy Sherald: American Sublime

"American Sublime is a salve. It's a call to remember our shared humanity and an insistence on being seen." —Amy Sherald

The exhibition tells the story of Sherald's vision and practice through approximately 40 paintings created from 2007 to the present—from her early, rarely seen works to her iconic, larger-than-life portraits of Black Americans in everyday moments. Sherald graduated from the Maryland Institute College of Art, studying under the famed painter Grace Hartigan, and worked in Baltimore during her formative years. Ms. Sherald the first African American to win the grand prize in the National Portrait Gallery's Outwin Boochever Portrait Competition. That recognition led to the commission of the official portrait of former First Lady Michelle Obama for the National Portrait Gallery's collection.

The museum's vast collections will be open to tour at your leisure.

Reservations by February 25, 2026.

Volunteering and Informational Opportunities

The Capitol Area Science and Engineering Fair is looking for judges. This year, judging takes place on Tuesday March 10th. Judges are provided materials in advance to review. These will be submissions in whatever category you have indicated you prefer to judge. The day of judging you meet with the students whose project(s) you were assigned so you can ask questions and discuss methods.

Check out the site for details. <https://www.casef.org/>

I have a friend who's been doing it for years in the Life Sciences - Middle School division. She describes it as, "a true bright spot in my year! Meeting and talking with interested, engaged, and curious kids is a day well spent."

I'm planning on volunteering.

AAUW State College Branch is Hosting

Title IX : Look Back & Challenges Ahead

featuring Peg Pennepacker

Wednesday, January 14, 2026, at 6 p.m.

Please plan to attend the next AAUW State College branch program on Title IX, featuring Peg Pennepacker, a retired K-12 Educator and Title IX consultant. The program will be held Wednesday, January 14, from 6 p.m. -7:30 p.m. in the College Township Council Room on the 2nd floor.

The meeting will also be available via Zoom for those unable to attend in-person.

Many of you will remember Peg and her knowledge and dedication to this issue from her presentation at our September 2023 Fall Luncheon. High lights of her background include:

From 2011-2017, Peg served as the athletic director in the State College Area School District, before retiring from public education. She is a Certified Athletic Administrator, founder of High School Title IX Consulting Services, and a national faculty member of the NIAAA (National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association). She also serves as an advisory board member of the Association of Title IX Administrators.

Peg will lead a conversation about the Title IX Education Amendments of 1972, all the way up to current challenges to the law today.

Please pre-register to receive the meeting link to attend via Zoom

Registration is requested: bit.ly/1-14-26TitleIXProgram

Walk-ins also welcome.

Sue Johnston, AAUW State College Education Chair

Introducing Jasmine Singh Bishnoi.

I am honored to serve as the College/University Liaison Officer for AAUW Pennsylvania. I am also a Teaching Associate and a PhD Candidate in English Literature and Criticism at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, with a focus on feminist activism and student advocacy. In addition to this role, I serve on the AAUW Indiana County Board, as President of the South Asian Student Association (SASA), and as Vice President of the Graduate Student Assembly (GSA) at IUP. My leadership and advocacy have been recognized nationally and internationally, including being named Thomas C. Segar Student Leader of the Year during IUP's 150th Anniversary and receiving a National Award from the Honorable President of India.

Why I'm Reaching Out:

As College/University Liaison Officer, one of my priorities is to strengthen the ties between Pennsylvania branches and our institutional members. Many institutions are eager to connect but may not always know how to engage fully with AAUW at the state and local levels. Branch leadership plays a critical role in creating those connections and ensuring students and faculty feel the impact of our mission.

How We Can Support Each Other:

My goal is to make sure branches and institutions work hand in hand. Together we can:

- Promote student leadership development through AAUW's flagship opportunities.

- Encourage institutional representatives and students to get involved in local branches.

- Build stronger pipelines for advocacy, programming, and mentorship.

I look forward to building stronger bridges between branches and institutions this year.

Warmly,

Jasmine Singh Bishnoi

College/University Liaison Officer, AAUW Pennsylvania

101-year-old landowner among families protecting farms in Kittatinny Ridge area

A recent additions to the tally of preserved farms in Lebanon County includes a 42-acre farm added to the list by its 101-year-old owner. It is a "strategic area of focus" for the conservancy since it serves as "a crucial corridor for songbird migration and vital habitat for rare wildlife," According to a release from Courtney Reimann, land protection director for the Lebanon Valley onservancy, the farm owned by Mildred "Millie" Yezdimir, 101, was established by her family in the 1930s "and remains a working farm with open fields, a small stream, and significant historical and personal value." Reimann said in the release its conservation was "a meaningful milestone" for Millie Yezdimir.

AAUW HARRISBURG DIVERSITY STATEMENT

AAUW Harrisburg condemns racism. We are committed to building a more just society where everyone, no matter the color of their skin, can live without fear, pursue their life goals, and thrive. Systemic racism is firmly rooted in the U.S., and today's injustices mirror our shameful history — from police brutality to inequality in educational opportunities to the disproportionate impact of COVID-19 on communities of color. Our country needs healing. That healing will only come with justice.

AAUW Harrisburg is committed to fighting for justice and long-term and lasting change and will collaborate with government officials, educators, and community organizations to address systemic racism and inequality in our community. To make a change, we must ACT, identifying ways in which each of us can optimize our recognition, acceptance and inclusion of all diverse groups and our roll in achieving equality in all its aspects in our community and our country, from patronizing minority owned businesses to contacting our government leaders.

OUR MISSION

To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy.

OUR VALUES

Nonpartisan. Fact-based.
Principled. Inclusive and Intersectional with Equity for All.
